NEWS RELEASE

July 10, 2019

Contact: Michael Kaha, Solid Waste Division Deputy Chief, County of Hawai'i
Department of Environmental Management (808-961-8270)

Construction and Demolition Debris and Grading & Grubbing Materials Will NOT be Accepted at the South Hilo Sanitary Landfill after July 31, 2019

Effective August 1, 2019, the County will no longer accept construction and demolition debris (C&D debris) or grading and grubbing materials at the South Hilo Sanitary Landfill.

- C&D debris includes "special waste" such as concrete, rock, brick, wood, masonry, plaster, and other similar materials. In addition, grading and grubbing materials will no longer be accepted for disposal.
- Contact the Solid Waste Division at 961-8270 if you need to confirm whether you have C&D debris.

C&D debris must be hauled to the West Hawai'i Sanitary Landfill (a.k.a. Pu'uānāhulu) located at 71-1111 Queen Ka'ahumanu Highway in Waikoloa.

For more information, please visit www.hawaii Zerowaste.org or call our Solid Waste Division Office at 961-8270.

Mahalo for doing your part in properly disposing of waste and C&D debris, and keeping our Hawai'i Island a clean and beautiful paradise.
